VOCAL DUO "AS IS" (Alan & Stacey Schulman) RELEASES NEW TWIST ON CLASSIC CHRISTMAS FAVORITE

Looking for a new twist on a classic Christmas favorite? Check out "O HOLY NIGHT!" – the latest holiday single from the NY/NJ duo AS IS.

For decades, the Christmas Classic "O Holy Night" has been a staple of nearly every Holiday playlist. AS IS, the American Duo of Jazz Guitarist Alan Schulman & Vocalist Stacey Schulman, have reimagined this iconic Christmas favorite from its origin as a semi-sacred and traditional carol into a bouncing samba-esque arrangement that's bound to have you up on your feet and swaying to the beat.

The single, released December 3rd, was arranged by the Duo AS IS and produced by former GRAMMY trustee and nominee James McKinney of Infinite Icon Productions. The single features subtle scatting from jazz song stylist Stacey Schulman and tasty guitar fills by jazz guitarist Alan Schulman. Latin accents are provided by the rhythm section of native Brazilian brothers – Bassist Leonardo Lucini and drummer/percussionist Alejandro Lucini.

The track was recorded at Blue House Studios in Silver Spring, Maryland, where it was engineered by Jeff Gruber and mixed by Grammy-winning sound engineer Scott Jacoby of Eusonia Studios in NYC. The single is the first release from the Billboard Charting Duo AS IS since their sophomore release "Here's to Life" (Night Night the Elephant productions) in 2018.
